

Making magical marriages

From the ring to the venue, these companies have the expertise to ensure your wedding day is perfect

Milliner Eleanor Lucy Johnson shares her tips for choosing the right hat:

“To quote Coco Chanel, ‘luxury must be comfortable, otherwise it is not luxury’. Bespoke hats complement your personality, look and occasion, and both you and your hat should look fabulous from all angles. If you’re doing a reading in the church, choose a tipped brim or percher so the congregation can see your face.”

For wedding hair, Shen Hassan from Beautiful Wedding Hair advises: “Without a doubt, how you wear your hair on your wedding day makes all the difference to how you will look and feel. Look for inspiration, on the web, magazines and red carpet events. Above all else, prepare to think differently to how you normally do, for this is a special look, for a special day, and listen to your hairdresser/ stylist as with their help things you didn’t think possible, really can happen.”
